Dessert Wines

Domaine de Durban Muscat de Beaumes de Venise
(375ml) $28

A 375 ml split of this incredible French dessert wine has rich flavors of apricot and honey and a touch of acidity to give it balance.

Errazuriz Late Harvest Sauvignon Blanc $6

Evoluvio Late Harvest $6

M. Chiarlo Nivole Moscato d'Asti (375 ml) $22

An incredible sparkling dessert wine in which flavors of pear predominate. It's a waitstaff favorite.

Mad Cuvee Late Harvest Tokaji $7

Malvira' Birbet $39

Single & Pure Malt

Glenlivet 12 Year $10

Cardhu 12 Year $10

Dalwhinnie 15 year $14

Floral scent. Smooth, tangy and mouth-drying; easy to drink.

Caol Ila 12 year $15

The smokiest most intense single malt you'll ever taste. If you like an "in your face" scotch you'll love Cao Ila. There's nothing subtle about it.

Talisker 10 year $17

A razor-sharp spiciness balances the sweetness and rich peat. Absolutely magnificent. Opposite end of the spectrum from Caol Ila. Slightly salty and has aroma and taste of sea weed. Definitely a seaside product.

Glenkinchie $17

Johnnie Walker Green $18

Some JW aficionados have sworn to us, "there's no such thing as Johnny Walker Green." This is a pure malt that's subtle and well rounded. Good one to ease blended whisky drinkers into single malts.

Oban 14 Year $20

Smooth and mildly smoky, Oban opens with malty sweetness and end with a smooth finish.

Lagavulin 16 Year $22

Single Barrel

Woodford Reserve Distiller's Select $8

Gorgeous cognac color with a hints of spicey rye, oak and caramel.

Basil Hayden's $9

Subtle with a gentle bouquet. A great aperitif bourbon that will leave your palate intact.

Booker's $13

Unfiltered and straight from the barrel with spicey notes. We recommend a splash of water for this fiery bourbon.
